A Note from the Principal

Dear Parents and families of Scotts Mills students, I want to take a moment to invite all of our families to conferences this month. Parent-Teacher conferences are an important time each fall that we are able to connect with families regarding student learning. We love the chance to get to know you, to show off all of the fabulous learning your student has been doing so far this year at Scotts Mills, and to share important insights about the unique needs your student has. Your student's educational growth and success is our top priority, and parent teacher conferences are a time to learn how you can support your student at home and in their future. Our fall conferences will be held Monday, Nov. 19th and Tuesday, Nov. 20th. There will be no school Wednesday-Friday for the Thanksgiving holiday. We will be sending home scheduling information in the next week.

*Thank you,
Kirstin Jorgenson*

If you do not want your child published in the various venues we use to celebrate Scotts Mills School, please contact the office.

- Occasionally our PTCC would like to publish student pictures on Facebook, example Jog-a-thon winners. This is how we share celebrations and great news about our school and students.
- If you do NOT want your child's picture published, please let us know. (Contact office)
- We ask that you do not take and post pictures of students because you do not know if another parent does not want their child's photo shared on social media.
